

21-Day East African Adventure South - CAE0442

Day 1 Kenya - Nairobi / Tanzania - Arusha

Camp B,L,D

We leave Nairobi early and cross the border for Tanzania, arriving at our camp outside Arusha, we settle in to camp and get to know each other and the vehicle. Today we have the privilege of visiting one of the local Masai villages.

Day 2/3 Serengeti - Ngorongoro

Camp B,L,D

There are many options available, ranging from a one-day trip to the Ngorongoro crater, to a three-day trip into the Serengeti. As this is for your own expense, we give you every opportunity to match the activity to your budget. For those not going to the parks, take this opportunity to absorb some of the fascinating local culture. One of the guides will remain with those that decide to stay in Arusha. Optional Activities: Serengeti, Ngorongoro Excursion.

Day 4/5 Arusha - Dar es Salaam

Camp B,L,D (D only Day 16)

Getting together again after our various game viewing activities in the game parks, we spend our night swapping 'big game' stories around the campfire. The groups normally return from the Serengeti excursion late in the afternoon. The following day we drive south towards the Indian Ocean and the historical port city of Dar es Salaam.

Day 6/7/8 Zanzibar

Own Arrangements B (day 6 only) Zanzibar accommodation is normally B & B

On this optional activity a transfer by ferry takes you to Zanzibar where you will spend the next few days exploring this fascinating island with its renowned architecture, beautiful beaches, colourful people and history. The excursion is at your own expense and costs can be adjusted depending on your preferred level of accommodation and activities. If you prefer not to go to Zanzibar, one of the guides will stay behind with you. Optional Activities: Zanzibar Excursion: Ferry, Food, Accommodation, Spice Tours, Dolphin Tours, Scuba Diving, Snorkeling.

Day 9/10 Zanzibar / Dar es Salaam / Iringa

Camp B,L,D

Today we leave Zanzibar and catch a late ferry (or flight) back to Dar es Salaam and return to our campsite. The evening can be spent reminiscing about our days on the island. The next day we make the border crossing into Malawi. As we descend into the Great Rift Valley through some spectacular mountain passes, we pass the vast tea plantations in the highlands, arriving at our camp outside Iringa.

Day 11/12/13/14 Malawi – Northern and Central Lake Malawi

Camp B,L,D

Today, after visiting a local village in Iringa, we head to Lake Malawi, which used to be called Lake Nyasa, and is the southernmost of the Great Rift Valley lakes. The lake is at an altitude of around 500 metres and has a tropical climate. We will spend the next couple of carefree days relaxing on the white sandy beaches. For the more adventurous there are endless leisure and water sport activities. Alternatively, soak up the atmosphere and relax in one of the most scenic and memorable holiday destinations in Africa! The evenings are spent beside (close to) the tranquil waters. Optional Activities: Scuba diving, parasailing, windsurfing, fishing, canoeing, horse riding, craft shopping, hiking and more.

Day 15 Luwawa Forest

Camp B,L,D

Today we cross the Malawi - Zambia border after leaving the lake in the early morning. Heading south we head for the Luwawa Forest, above the Great Rift Valley. You will remember this indigenous forest region for its magnificent scenery. A hike through the forest may reward you with a glimpse of some of its secretive wildlife. There are some wonderful hikes in the area, which your guides will lead, as well as other great activities. Optional Activities: Fishing, Mountain Biking, Hiking.

Day 16/17 Zambia - South Luangwa National Park

Camp B,L,D

We drive from Luwawa Forest to the South Luangwa National Park where we will spend two nights on the banks of the river. The second day is put aside for included activities such as a tribal textile project tour and village visit. Park fees are included with a guided sunset game drive. (On occasion, in the rainy season it is impossible or inadvisable to attempt to reach South Luangwa NP, if this happens then an alternative itinerary will be chosen.) Optional Activities: Guided Game Walk in South Luangwa NP

Day 18 Chipata

Camp B,L,D

We sadly leave the wonderful South Luangwa NP to spend some relaxing time in a remote part of Zambia. This is an interesting area full of friendly locals.

Day 19 Lusaka

Camp B,L,D

Our journey towards the bustling Zambian capital of Lusaka takes us along an interesting route. If we arrive early enough to explore the local markets we will certainly enjoy this opportunity. We enjoy the evening relaxing after our long drive.

Day 20/21 Livingstone

Arriving early at our final destination of Victoria Falls, we have time to plan the next day's adventure activities before we head off to visit the spectacular Victoria Falls and experience the thundering sound of the mighty Zambezi. The popular optional sunset cruise includes dinner and drinks. The next day most people will spend the day White Water Rafting, a not-to-be-missed experience of a lifetime! Vic Falls offers many exciting alternatives. We do not recommend any onward travel on Day 21. Optional Activities: Zambezi Sunset Cruise, White Water Rafting, Bungee Jump, Elephant Excursion, Dinner out.
