

8 Day Delta and Chobe Trail

Day 1 Windhoek to Botswana - Ghanzi

---

After meeting your guides and group we drive to the border and cross into Botswana and head towards Ghanzi. After setting up camp we meet with a local Bushman (San) community and experience some traditional tribal dancing. There are also some traditional bushman huts that you have the opportunity to stay in for a nominal fee.

Meals: Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Ghanzi Trail Blazers: <http://ghanzitrailblazers.wheretostay.na/>

Day 2 Maun

---

Our journey takes us from Ghanzi towards Maun. Maun is the gateway to the Okavango Delta and this afternoon we will prepare for this excursion, packing small 2-night bags. There may be an opportunity this afternoon to visit the local crocodile farm or take a scenic flight.

Optional Activity: Crocodile Farm visit, Scenic Flight (time permitting)

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Sitatunga Camp: <http://www.deltarain.com/index.php?page=sitatunga-camp>

Day 3/4 Maun – Okavango Delta

---

This morning we board the big 4x4 truck that will take us in to the Delta, in high-water season it is sometimes necessary to take a boat to the poling station where we meet up with the members of a local community who will be showing us their homeland. We spend 2-nights bush camping in the wilderness and, if the water level allows, we will take a mokoro (traditional canoe) trip through the waterways. We will also be going on some nature walks in the hope of seeing some wild animals in their natural habitat.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Bush Camp: <http://www.deltarain.com>

Day 5 Gweta

---

We leave the Delta behind us and travel east to Planet Baobab. You can explore the bush around our campsite, lounge by the pool and view some of the region's oldest Baobab trees.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Planet Baobab Campsite: www.unchartedafrica.co.za/page.php?p\_id=59

Day 6 Botswana - Chobe National Park

---

We travel to Chobe and this afternoon we enjoy a sunset river cruise, as the animals are best spotted from the Chobe River. Elephants, Hippo, Crocodiles, Eland and many other creatures reside in Chobe so keep your cameras ready.
